Who is Pre-sessional English for?

While IELTS exams provide a good indication of your general English level, they don't include assessment or specific academic, degree-level study skills. If you're an international student with an offer to study at Queen's University Belfast, Pre-sessional English will develop these skills, helping you achieve the English language entry requirements of your degree.

Minimum English language requirements for joint Confirmation of Acceptance for Studies (CAS)

You may be eligible for a joint CAS, if you hold an offer for the 10-week or 6-week course. This allows you to apply for a visa to cover both the Pre-session course and subsequent degree. To be considered for this, you must hold an offer which is conditional only on English from Queen’s University Belfast, with no outstanding academic or financial deposit conditions.

Requirement for a joint CAS with no end-of-course examination*

If you enter with a joint CAS at this level, you won’t need to sit the end-of-course examination.
